

VOL. 2, ISSUE 2

DECEMBER 2020/JANUARY 2021

LEADERSHIP

Message from the President

This past March, NAEOP was fortunate to partner with Kathi Schildt and Advanced Association Management (AAM), and welcome Taylor Moore as our Executive Director. I would like to take this opportunity to explain the benefits of this partnership and how they will help NAEOP.

Click here for full article

EDUCATION

Embracing Cultural Awareness

The world has fast become a global village, with increased interactions among people from different cultural backgrounds. Every day, opportunities for these interactions present themselves right from our schools to our workplaces.

Click here for full article

ACHIEVEMENT

The Mental Game of Personal Achievement

What rating would you give yourself on personal productivity? Do you have a systematic plan for improving your effectiveness in your daily work?

Superachieving business people and athletes know what it takes to motivate themselves, maintain focus in the face of obstacles and drive forward to the completion of their vision and dreams.

Click here for full article.

RECOGNITION

Recognition

I took each of the letters of "RECOGNITION" and gave some thought to the meaning of the word and the actions of the word and came up with the following to describe it:

Click here for full article.

NETWORKING

Networking During the Pandemic

Usually there is no problem finding places we can network. We go to conferences, workshops, dinners, parties, out with friends, the list goes on.

Since March 2020 it has not been that easy with everyone under the restrictions of COVID -19.

Click here for full article.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES: CLICK ON EACH BOX FOR MORE INFORMATION

TECHNOLOGY FOCUS

PSP PROGRAM

GET INVOLVED

National Association of Educational Office Professionals

521 First Street, PO Box 10

Milford, NE 68405

Phone: 316-942-4822 | Email: staff@naeop.org